GENERAL SESSION C: PERSONALITY AND BEHAVIOR STYLE: DISCOVERING, EXPLORING, AND APPLYING | BALLROOM III |

Diann Newman, Associate Dean, Student Services, Florida International University

Personality Profiles: In our highly diverse workplaces there are many personality types, each with a different set of needs and success strategies. Learn to self evaluate and challenge your ability to empathize, communicate, and build relationships with coworkers who have similar and different personality styles. In this highly interactive session, participants will:

- Recognize behavioral preferences among four different personality types
- Identify area for professional and personal improvement
- Identify ways to “flex” to get the most out of each personality type

Developing your Personal Power: This entertaining presentation explains the power of choosing the thoughts you think, the pictures in your mind, and the actions you take. Participants can understand why change is difficult, learn how to trash irrational beliefs, determine whether you are a basement person or a balcony person and discover a strategy to honor and celebrate yourself.

Dominic Thurbon, Coi founder and Chief Creative Officer, ChangeLabs

To get ahead in the knowledge economy, companies must capture the expertise already floating around inside their four walls. Using everything from better technology to better meeting discipline, unleashing collaboration is a sure fire way to drive innovation, productivity and engagement. In a competitive market, we cannot afford to let collaboration be a buzzword – we need to implement real strategies for making it happen. In this insightful and empowering presentation, Dominic will:

- Give you the 5 behaviors to unleash collaboration, both personally and organizationally
- Identify the common barriers to making it happen and show how they can overcome
- Demonstrate the link between collaboration and innovation, productivity and engagement

TRADE SHOW – ATTENDEE INFORMATION

A supplier trade show that features the most popular academic suppliers will take place on Monday and Tuesday during extended morning and afternoon breaks. This is an ideal opportunity to view online booking and expense report demos, discuss contract opportunities, and network. The vendor trade show attracts travel management companies, airlines, rental car companies, expense reporting applications, online booking applications, airport parking providers, hotels, consultants and much, much more!

TRADE SHOW – EXHIBITOR INFORMATION

Participating in the SCTEM trade show is an ideal opportunity for suppliers to network with collegiate decision makers and recommend solutions that lead to lower costs, enhanced services, and streamlined efficiencies within the academic enterprise.

The trade show will be open during morning and afternoon breaks on Monday and Tuesday in a cocktail table format. This allows you to network without the need for elaborate exhibit displays or materials. The cost for a Conference Registration with or without trade show participation is $1250. To reserve your table, register at: <http://www.sctem.org>.
