

The Society of Collegiate Travel & Expense Management (SCTEM) focuses on the unique challenges faced by academic institutions regarding all aspects of business travel and expense management. SCTEM, created by higher education for higher education, is comprised of a strong network that represents countless academic institutions and suppliers across the United States and Canada. Membership is 100% free.

Membership Benefits:

- Knowledge sharing opportunities with peers and industry experts
- Online resource library
- Information sharing ability with member schools
- Access to travel industry suppliers
- Annual conference educational and networking opportunities with peers and travel industry suppliers
- LinkedIn group with the latest news & articles on travel and expense topics

Membership Discounts:

Free Subscription to Business Travel Executive – SCTEM members can take advantage of a free subscription to Business Travel Executive magazine, weekly e-mail newsletter and access to educational content on the AskBTE.com website that is rich in managed travel and procurement solutions. Collegiate members can choose between the print or digital edition. Supplier members have access to the digital edition. Click here to subscribe now!

Join us!

Qualifications:

The qualification for collegiate membership will be open to all candidates that are involved in Travel and Expense, Procurement, Payables, Administration or other positions related to a travel function at a College or University.

Click here to complete the membership application which is 100% free!

Already a Member?

Click here to update your profile with current information.