

An aerial photograph of New Orleans, Louisiana, featuring the Mississippi River in the foreground. A large, multi-decked riverboat is docked at a pier. The city skyline is visible in the background, with several tall skyscrapers and a mix of historic and modern architecture. The sky is filled with soft, colorful clouds in shades of blue, orange, and pink, suggesting a sunset or sunrise. The text "New Orleans" is overlaid in large, white, sans-serif font across the center of the image.
